Office Action Summary	Application No. 10/726,193	Applicant(s) YAMAMOTO ET AL.
	Examiner Cam N. Nguyen	Art Unit 1754

-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Applicants' amendment and remarks, filed March 20, 2006, has been made of record and entered. Claims 1-7 & 9 have been canceled. Claims 8 & 10 have been amended. Claims 13-16 have been added.

Claims 8 & 10-16 are currently pending and under consideration.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 8 & 13 are objected to because of the following informalities:

A. In claim 8, line 5, "of no less than 40m²/g" should be changed to --of not less than 40 m²/g--.

B. In claim 8, last line, "at least one kind of" should be changed to --at least one member of--.

C. In claim 13, line 6, "at least one kind of" should be changed to --at least one member of--.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102(e)

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

4. Claims 8, 10, & 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Bonneau et al., "hereinafter Bonneau", (US Pat. 5,908,800).

Bonneau discloses a process of preparing a precursor of a composition comprising a mixed cerium and zirconium oxide (see col. 11, claim 1). The composition is calcined at a temperature between 200 and 800°C (see col. 12, claim 15). After calcined at 800°C for six hours, the composition has a specific surface area of at least 40 m²/g (see col. 12, claims 17, 27, & 28). Bonneau further discloses that the composition as described can be used together with a support material, such as alumina, zirconia, or titania, and catalytically active metals, such as precious metals, to make catalysts for the treatment of exhaust gases from internal combustion engine (see col. 7, ln 8-44).

No difference is seen between the claimed process and that disclosed by Bonneau. Thus, the claims are anticipated by the reference. Note that Bonneau teaches to calcine the composition at a temperature above 700°C and still maintaining a specific surface area of at least 40 m²/g (see above).

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claim 11 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Applicants' Arguments

6. Applicants' amendment and remarks filed on March 20, 2006 has been considered, but not deemed persuasive in view of the new ground of rejection(s) above.

Citations

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. All references are cited for related art. See PTO-892 Form prepared attached.

Conclusion

8. Claims 8 & 10-16 are pending. Claims 8, 10, & 12 are rejected. Claims 8, 11, & 13 are objected. Claims 14-16 are allowed.
